Respect for the Celebration of Mass

Parishioners are kindly reminded of the importance of arriving on time for Mass and remaining until the final blessing and dismissal. The Mass is a sacred celebration, and our full participation from beginning to end is a sign of reverence for the Eucharist and respect for the worshipping community.

If possible, please plan to arrive a few minutes early to prepare yourself in prayer. Likewise, we ask that parishioners avoid leaving before the conclusion of Mass unless there is a genuine necessity.

Thank you for helping maintain a prayerful and respectful atmosphere for everyone gathered to worship.
